

The Government Changes Front

IF YOU are one of those good Democrats who are also good Americans—and most of us are—and found yourself, like this writer, beginning to be bitterly critical of the Roosevelt administration this past summer and fall because it continued to spend more money than it took in, then today you are feeling immeasurably better.

The hostile press of the big cities has lambasted the president and the Democratic party all their years in office. They were the voice of Opposition rather than the voice of Judgment—and so they drew scant attention.

But late this summer there began, and continued through the fall, a wave of criticism from the smaller cities, their newspapers, their business men, and their political leaders. The protest against governmental extravagance came this time from friends rather than from enemies—it was the voice of a judgment; and it was heeded.

Or, rather shall we say, Mr. Roosevelt recognized the common source of trouble which caused this criticism—a reversal in the upswing of business, and a threat of new panic.

Private Housing Program Outlined by the President

Roosevelt Calls on Congress to Liberalize 1934 Federal Act

WILL INSURE RISK

New Houses to Be Privately Financed, With U. S. Guarantee

WASHINGTON. — (AP) — President Roosevelt asked congress Monday to liberalize the existing law to encourage billions of dollars worth of new housing construction in the next five years.

In a message to the special session completed before he left for a Florida rest, the president asserted "a long-continued lag in building is a drag on all industry and trade" and was "one of the principal reasons why general business has failed to forge ahead" in recent months.

Declaring that increases in hourly wage rates and material costs had been "too rapid and too great for the consumer to bear," and had checked production and buying in other industries, he said he would confer with representatives of industry, labor and finance in an effort to adjust such costs to the consumers' means.

He proposed eight changes in the national housing act of 1934 to make possible, through federal insurance of low-interest mortgages, the private financing of large numbers of housing units.

J. S. Conway, Jr., Bound Over Here

Waives Arraignment in Attack Charge by A. W. Sullivan

J. S. Conway, Jr., was ordered held Monday for action of Hempstead circuit court after being arraigned in municipal court on a charge of assault with intent to kill A. W. (Seck) Sullivan.

No testimony was taken in municipal court, Conway waiving the preliminary examination. Bond was fixed at $500. The charge against Conway, a Hope man, resulted from a fight between Conway and Sullivan in which the latter was slashed on the face and shoulder with a knife.

Two defendants were convicted Monday of driving automobiles while drunk. D. D. Crabb pleaded guilty and was fined $100. J. B. Griffin forfeited a cash bond of $150 on a charge of driving an automobile while drunk.

Sid Williams was convicted on a charge of reckless driving and was fined $25. He gave notice of appeal to circuit court. Bond was set at $150.

Charles Graham, possessing untaxed liquor, acquitted.

E. L. Evans and A. L. Boyles forfeited $10 cash bonds on charges of drunkenness.

Charges against C. R. Smith and John Stipsky for transporting cars without paying registration fee and obtaining a permit as required by law, were dismissed on motion of Deputy Prosecutor W. S. Atkins.

El Doradoan Named Chairman of State Hospital Board

LITTLE ROCK. — (AP) — Governor Bailey Monday announced the appointment of Corporation Commissioner M'Carroll as commissioner of revenues in the latest move in his reorganization of state departments.

He said he had reached no decision on who the third member of the corporation commission would be. Usually well-informed sources said former Revenue Commissioner Ford would take the commission chairmanship vacated by M'Carroll.

Bailey returned to his office Monday after an absence of 10 days due to a kidney ailment.

A state administration spokesman said the shakeup of appointive officers at the capital would be of wide scope. The names of former State Senator John C. Ashley, Attorney J. P. Koonce of the comptroller's department, and Ed Farris, racing commission secretary, came to the fore in capital discussions of possible appointees to the corporation commission.

Mrs. Frank H. Dodge, chairman of the state hospital board, submitted her resignation to the governor Monday effective December 1. She is the wife of Pulaski Chancellor Dodge, and had served the board as chairman since January.

An hour after receiving her resignation, Governor Bailey appointed J. K. Mahoney, El Dorado attorney, as chairman of the board.

He was on the board under former Governor Futrell from 1933 until he resigned in August, 1936. He also is a former member of the University of Arkansas Board of Trustees.

These Local Folks Meet FSA Requirement That Every Farm Family Grow Enough Food

Hempstead Family of 6 Puts Up 1,038 Cans This Season

90% of Farm Security Families Won't Buy Feedstuffs

CORN, SORGHUM, HAY

Here Is Review of Farm Administration Activities Here

Growing food and feed crops is the first requirement of the Farm Security Administration. No family can be rehabilitated without growing these crops.

The photographs are evidence of a food crop grown and canned in this county. One of the pictures shows part of the canned goods of Mrs. H. A. McNatt. There are six in family, and Mrs. McNatt has canned 1038 quarts of fruit, vegetables and meat. This is typical of 90 per cent of the 157 farm families in Hempstead county that have FSA loans. A total of 115,751 quarts of fruit, meats, and vegetables up to November 1 have been canned by the 157 families. This averages 152 quarts per person; 50,205 pounds of dried vegetables have been saved also, and practically every family has a large potato and sorghum patch.

Won't Buy Feed. At least 90 per cent of the 157 families have sufficient feed to make the 1938 crop. The remaining 10 per cent has a large amount of feed. This feed consists of corn, grain sorghum, peanuts, legume hays, fodder and grass hay.

H. A. McNatt, who is in one of the pictures with his team, has produced and saved enough feed for a four mile crop, and his milk cows next year. Mr. McNatt is sold to the idea of growing hog and peanuts to "back up" his corn crop.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McKemie, neighbors of the McNatts, have also made an unusual record this year. Mrs. McKemie canned 1,320 quarts of fruits, meats and vegetables. One picture shows part of the nice flock of Rhode Island Red chickens grown by Mrs. McKemie. (And Mr. McKemie has sufficient hog in his barn to feed these chickens until the next crop is harvested). This family is building a large brooder house now, and Mrs. McKemie is planning to supplement the family income by the sale of fryers next spring.

Home Meat. The hogs shown in another picture are three of seven that Mrs. McKemie plans to butcher for home use. This family should live well this winter. In addition to the canned goods, they have 100 gallons of syrup, 40 gallons of honey of honey and an abundance of sweet potatoes.

The picture of Dorothy McNatt and the "outlaw" mare is quite interesting. Four men turned this mare in as an "outlaw" in 1935 and 1936, stating that she could not be worked. However, Dorothy cultivated the garden, truck patches and an acre of cotton grown in 4-H club work with this mare.

Dorothy has helped buy clothes for the family by taking their pressure cooker and canning for her neighbors. Collections for the county up to date are good.

Brockelhurst to Die for Murder

"Crime Tourist" Loses Appeal—Hempstead Judgment Upheld

LITTLE ROCK. — (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court Monday upheld the death sentence conviction of "Crime Tourist" Lester Brockelhurst, 23, of Galesburg, Ill., for the hitch-hiking slaying of Victor A. Gates, Little Rock planter, last May 6.

The court upheld a $2,500 judgment for Bernard O'Steen against the Louisiana & Arkansas Railway company for injuries suffered a mile south of Hope when the car in which he was riding was hit by a train May 9, 1916.

The decision said H. B. Barr was not entitled to a judgment against the railroad for damages to his car, in which O'Steen was riding.

The court denied Insurance Commissioner M. J. Harrison's petition that a salary judgment for former Commissioner U. A. Gentry against him be modified.

A month ago the court held that Harrison owed Gentry approximately $1,000, ruling that Gentry had drawn pay for about four and a half months which should have gone to Gentry.

105 Road Deaths During Week-End

Freezing Weather Braved by Football Fans for Last Time

By the Associated Press

Blanketing fog and rains along the Eastern seaboard, sub-freezing temperatures in the West and Midwest, and the windup of this season's general football schedules all were factors in week-end automobile accidents which took at least 105 lives over the nation.

New York led the death list with 13, seven fatalities in the metropolitan area, and six upstate. Texas and Michigan reported 10 each, and Washington seven.

Auto Fatalities Decrease 1 Pct.

Deaths Up 8 Pct., But Travel Is Up 9 Pct. in 10 Months

CHICAGO. — (AP) — The nation's motorists have become better drivers, the National Safety Council concluded today.

It reported 31,950 persons lost their lives in motor vehicle accidents in the first 10 months of this year, compared with 25,560 in a corresponding period in 1936. But the 8 per cent increase in fatalities was more than offset by a 9 per cent increase in automobile travel, so that the death rate per 100,000 miles was one per cent lower than the previous year.

The Council pointed to these encouraging factors:

1. Whereas deaths increased 17 per cent in the first five months of 1937 in comparison with a similar period of last year, the increase during the next five was only two per cent.

2. Sixteen states showed fewer fatalities than they did up to the end of October in 1936—representing a total saving of 365 lives.

These states were Maine, 16 per cent; Nevada, 15; South Dakota, 1; Kansas, 13; Washington, 13; Oklahoma, 10; Minnesota, 8; North Dakota, 8; Arkansas, 4; Virginia, 3; West Virginia, 3; Connecticut, 3; Tennessee, 2; New Mexico, 2; Massachusetts, 1; Georgia, 1.

Milwaukee retained the distinction of having the lowest death rate of cities of more than 500,000 population. The rate per 100,000 residents was only 10.6 compared with a big city average of 17.4. New York was second in that class with 11.7. First and second cities in the other categories were:

Between 250,000-500,000 population—Memphis, 12.4; Minneapolis, 12.8.

Between 100,000-250,000—Hartford, Conn., and New Bedford, Mass., each 6.4; Wichita, Kan., 7.1.

Between 50,000-100,000—Hoboken, N. J., 2.9; Bayonne, N. J., 2.6.

Between 25,000-50,000—Bangor, Me., and Beverly, Mass., both with perfect records; Dubuque, Ia., and Poughkeepsie, N. Y., 2.9 each.

The national October total was 3,890.

Half Dozen Hurt, One Seriously in Motor Collisions

Two Collisions, Third Car Goes Over Bank, and Fourth Burns

MAN PUT IN JAIL

Texas Held After Car Goes Over Bank at Fulton Bridge

A half dozen persons were injured, one perhaps seriously, in a series of automobile accidents in Hempstead and Nevada counties over the week-end.

Miss Minnie Mullins, 22, of Delight, was probably the most seriously hurt. She is in Cora Donnell hospital at Prescott with several broken ribs and possible internal injuries.

She was riding in a car that collided with a second automobile Sunday afternoon at West First street, Prescott. The second car was occupied by several women who were taken to Texarkana in a Prescott ambulance.

Three Hurt Here

Three persons were injured early Saturday night when the automobile in which they were traveling crashed into a show truck near Mack's Tourist camp, about two miles west of Hope on Highway 67.

Injured were Charles Collins, 31, and A. E. Rainsaldine, 22, both of Minneapolis, and Robert Fields, 21, of South Dakota.

Collins sustained a wrenched back. His companions were bruised over the body and received minor facial lacerations.

They were coming east toward Hope. Their car, a 16-cylinder Marmon sedan, was demolished. No one riding in the show truck was injured.

Texas Woman Injured

Miss Helen Brooks, 21, of Denton, Texas, was injured slightly Sunday afternoon when the car in which she was riding crashed through the east railing of the Fulton toll bridge, rolling nearly 50 feet down an embankment.

Officers arrested a man who said he was from Chicago, Texas, and held him in the Miller county jail without formal charge. Sheriff Tom Sewell of Miller county said he would file a charge of drunken driving against him.

The man and Miss Brooks were taken to a Texarkana hospital in an ambulance. Miss Brooks was placed on the emergency table but got off and walked out of the hospital while nurses were examining her.

She was said to have suffered only slight shock. A wrecker brought their car, a large sedan, to Hope. It was badly damaged. Officers considered their escape from death or serious injury miraculous.

Automobile Burns. An automobile said to have belonged to a finance company burned up on the Hope-Fulton paved road Sunday afternoon. It was said the car was repossessed at Houston, Texas, and was being driven to Mississippi.

It was reported a tire went flat. The driver left it to summon aid, looked back and found the car in flames. It was reported that a farmer shot a hole in the gas tank to prevent a possible explosion. The gasoline aided the blaze and the car was destroyed.

Wrecker services of Hope reported that several automobiles were pulled out of ditches and mudholes where cars had become "stuck."

The Little Graces

Each lovely, unexpected thing I see
Along the highway of my common day
Wakes in my heart a singing melody
Which travels with me all the weary way.

Sometimes it is a clump of blossoms,
wild and sweet,
Which lift pure faces from the dusty grass.

Sometimes when children run with eager feet
My own youth quickens, just to see them pass.

No day so grey, but some odd golden gleam
Brightens to sudden radiance, and I see—

As if heaven's doors were opened in a dream—
The tender grace of God's divinity.

Arkansas Colleges Study Conference

More Satisfactory Athletic Setup Will Be Sought

CONWAY, Ark.—(AP)—Arkansas colleges laid aside football equipment Sunday and prepared for a conference at Little Rock Saturday out of which may come a complete realignment of state athletic relationship.

Arkansas State Teachers College here won the state championship for the second straight year, running its list of consecutive victories without a defeat or tie to 16. Arkansas Tech, beaten only by the Teachers, again held second place while the other schools finished in order, Hendrix, Henderson, Monticello A. and M. and Arkansas State of Jonesboro.

Ouchitla College of Arkadelphia was the only other school to support a football team and it was "outlawed" from intrastate competition. Magnolia A. and M. quit at the start of the season and Arkansas College of Batesville, College of the Ozarks and Little Rock Junior College did not attempt to arrange a football schedule.

Collapsing of football at some of the smaller schools and severance of relations between Hendrix and Teachers hit box offices a heavy blow, officials reported. The financial strain and unsatisfactory athletic setup paved the way for a renovation of the Arkansas Intercollegiate Athletic Association at its annual meeting here Saturday.

Chief proposal forwarded has been the arrangement of home-and-home schedules between schools whose teams are regarded as "equals." Arkansas State of Jonesboro, Monticello and Magnolia already have announced such a schedule for next year with the added innovation of making the contests free to the public.

Nashville to Be Scene of Meeting

Methodists to Send Large Delegations to the Conference

LITTLE ROCK, Ark.—(AP)—The Little Rock and North Arkansas conferences of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, will send large delegations to the church's educational council meeting at Nashville, Tenn., December 9-15.

The meeting has been designated the "Aldersgate" session and the program will stress the Aldersgate commemoration now in progress throughout the church under the direction of the college of bishops. Purpose of the commemoration, church leaders said, is to emphasize the "importance of a personal experience in religion" and to commemorate the 200th anniversary of the evangelical conversion of John Wesley, Methodism's founder, at Aldersgate in London in 1738.

Among Arkansians expected to attend the meeting are Dr. J. H. Reynolds, Conway; Dr. M. J. Russell, Valley Springs; Dr. Nat R. Griswold, Conway; Dr. C. J. Greene, Conway; the Rev. Sam B. Wiggins, Conway; the Rev. James W. Workman, Fayetteville; the Rev. Roy Bevan, Magnolia; the Rev. J. M. Hamilton, Monticello; the Rev. H. H. Griffin, Jonesboro; the Rev. Glen F. Sanford, Conway; the Rev. Clem Baker, Little Rock; the Rev. I. A. Brumley, Conway; the Rev. Leland Clegg, Magnolia; Dr. J. M. Williams, Conway; J. S. M. Cannon, Little Rock; Mrs. C. B. A wedding that will be of interest to her many friends in Hope is that of Miss Mildred Miller to W. J. Paxton of Baton Rouge, La. Miss Miller is the daughter of Mrs. H. A. Miller of this city. The ceremony was performed at the home of Rev. W. A. Corkin, pastor of the Istouma Baptist church, no Wednesday November 24. Mr. Paxton is a graduate of L. S. U. and is an employee of the C. H. Bebert department store of Baton Rouge, La.

B. S. Alford of Minden, La., has been visiting with his daughter, Mrs. C. C. Collins and Mr. Collins in Hope.

Mrs. Howard M. Threlkeld has returned home from San Antonio, Texas, where she attended Section Three convention of the National Association of School Secretaries.

Word has been received here of the death of J. W. Sutton, 305 Oakdale avenue, Toledo, Ohio, in that city November 6. Mr. Sutton is survived by his widow, Mrs. Maude Sutton, the former Maude Ward, of Toledo, and three grown children who live in Cuffeyville, Kan.

"The whole policy is in the formative state," Jackson said, adding he reported on the department's present efforts to enforce the anti-trust laws. Cases are pending against the Aluminum Company of America and several oil companies in an action being tried in Madison, Wis.

The president in his message to the special session cited a need for changes in existing law to give small businesses a better chance to compete with the larger. Legislation, however, is expected to go over until the regular session starting in January.

With Secretary Ickes, who also is Public Works administrator, the executive went over plans for closing out the PWA. He also discussed several projects whose costs have increased or decreased since he approved them originally. Ickes said it would take about two years more to complete PWA liquidation, even though locations for new projects ceased several months ago.

Immediately after the expected approval by the Southern church a standing commission on the merger proposal will call a conference, which must meet within 12 months.

Nine hundred delegates, 400 each from the North and South branches and 100 from the Protestant group, will attend the conference which will arrange for the first general conference of the united church.

During the interim between the Birmingham approval and the first united general conference, subcommittees of the union of the various benevolent, educational, publishing, ritual and property ownership agencies of the churches.

The new Methodist church will be divided into five geographical jurisdictional groups and one racial group in the United States. One of the major changes will provide for the election of bishops by jurisdictional groups rather than by general conference as under the present setup. Church leaders said this would provide a more democratic Episcopal administration. The bishops then would serve the entire church as an Episcopal council, yet each would be directly responsible to the jurisdiction by which he was elected.

Tells President Power 'Deal' OK

Floyd E. Carlisle, chairman of Consolidated Edison Company of New York, is shown above as he left the White House after agreeing to consider a $100,000,000 expansion program for his company and to "go along" with President Roosevelt's effort to obtain lower private electric rates in return for lessened government competition.

Stone and Bright Picked on Gazette's and Democrat's All-State Selections

Stone Makes Associated Press and Democrat's First Team—Arkansas Gazette Favors Bright for Its Mythical Team

Freeman Stone and Vasco Bright won first places on several all-state selections picked by the Associated Press and various newspapers over the state. The Arkansas Gazette gave Bright the quarterback position on the first team.

The Arkansas Democrat and the Associated Press gave Stone a first place on their teams.

Arkansas Gazette's first team: Ends—Hoffman, Little Rock, Phillips, Pine Bluff. Tackles—Roberts, Blytheville, Boyd, Pine Bluff. Guards—Wilson, North Little Rock; Beazley, Forrest City. Center—McConnell, Little Rock. Quarterback—Bright of Hope. Halfbacks—Mosely, Blytheville; Kizzia, Camden. Fullback—Martindale of Little Rock.

Reese and Stone of Hope were given places on the Gazette's third team.

Associated Press Team
Freeman Stone was the only player from Hope to get a first place in the Associated Press first team. Bright was placed on the second team at quarterback. Reese, Parsons and Keith were given honorable mention.

The Associated Press team was selected from nominations of the following newspapers: Arkansas Gazette, Arkansas Democrat, Pine Bluff Graphic, Pine Bluff Commercial, Hope Star, Camden Evening News, Russellville Courier Democrat, Hot Springs Sentinel-Record, Hot Springs News Era.

The first team:
Ends—Phillips, Pine Bluff; Ambort, Little Rock. Tackles—Stone, Hope; White, Camden. Guards—Wilson, North Little Rock; Beazley, Forrest City. Center—McConnell, Little Rock. Quarterback—Bright, Pine Bluff. Halfbacks—Mosely, Blytheville; Kizzia, Camden. Fullback—Martindale, Little Rock.

Oh, Ohio! Oh, Ohio!

Small wonder that Jim McDonnell scored a touchdown in the first four minutes of Ohio State's game with Illinois. Just before he took the field, the Buckeyes' co-captain and quarterback was given a rousing sendoff by pretty Ellen Morley of Cleveland Heights, homecoming queen.

Washington Defeats Fulton by Score 56-10

The Washington Panthers defeated Fulton High School Tuesday, November 23 on the Panthers home court, the score being 56-10.

Bears Consider Bowl Opponents

Pitt, Fordham, Alabama Remain Well in Dope Forefront

BERKELEY, Calif.—(AP)—The process of Rose Bowl matchmaking went on behind a thick veil of secrecy Sunday but University of California athletic officials indicated they were making as much speed as possible toward selection of an opponent for their Golden Bears in the New Year's Day football classic at Pasadena.

Although Graduate Manager Kenneth Priestley declined to answer questions, the impression prevailed that he was awaiting replies to informal queries as to the availability of one or more eastern teams.

This has been the customary procedure in the past. The Western team in this case the undefeated but untied Bears, usually sends out feelers to the eastern school of its choice and does not extend a formal invitation until unofficially assured of its acceptance.

"Regardless of the hour, day or night, we will announce the name of the chosen team the minute the matter is settled," Priestley said.

The virtual windup of the regular grid season Saturday produced few if any new factors to complicate Priestley's selection job.

Pitt and Fordham, unbeaten but tied by each other, kept in the picture by trouncing Duke and New York University respectively and according to expectations. Unbeaten Alabama, an old hand in Rose Bowl matters, remained well in the dope foreground.

Priestley side-stepped questions about Dartmouth, Yale, Minnesota and other alleged dark horse possibilities.

Glittering Gifts for Santa's Pack

Service Writer Offers Suggestions for Christmas Buyers

By ALEXANDER KERR
AP Feature Service Writer
NEW YORK.—Saint Nick and the fashion man have teamed up to produce a wealth of glittering gifts for Christmas.

Gold necklaces, clips, cigarette cases and compacts, colored gloves, handkerchiefs, vivid kerchiefs and leather accessories make a posh-nour of presents which will dangle from Christmas trees from Maine to California.

The new necklaces—very important this year when nearly every woman is wearing them—would make Midas wistful. Good Etruscan and filigree chains, tubular twists and multiple rows of beads are glittering and smart. Clips are calla lilies, pine cones, acorn clusters and modernistic tube designs—all laquered in gold.

Golden Apple Compact
Something new in compacts is a little golden apple about three inches across, hollowed to hold powder and puff. Less striking ones are cut in the shape of gold leaves or hearts peirced by cupid's dart.

Colored gloves—less mad this season than when they first swept across fashion's horizon—are designed to make very smart accessories to dark costumes and very welcome Christmas gifts. Velvet, suede and antelope in such hues as Bordeaux red, blue green beige and mustard are the favorites.

The smartest new bags have handles—some of them long enough to hang over the shoulder. They are made of suede, crocodile and calf—generally of sober hues—and fitted inside with all the accessories they need.

Jungle Gifts for Men
Colored chiffon—plain, patterned or worked with metal threads—are this year's bright answer to the question of gift handkerchiefs.

Many of the smartest gifts for men are of leather. Among them are new "jungle gloves" made of antelope, wild donkey or water moccasin skin—anything that comes from the jungle—and given a smoothly tailored finish.

Alligator and snakeskin make sleek, new cigarette cases—long, narrow and closed with a folding flap top—while the smartest evening hat folds are made of black moire. Another of the season's novel Christmas gifts for men is a toilet water with a leather scent.

Most actors worry about how their name will look on a theater marquee when they should be worrying about how good it will look to a bank teller on a check.—Frank McLaugh, movie comedian.

Our army exists for defense, but if we are attacked we shall answer with the greatest offensive in history.—War Commissar Voroshilov, Moscow, Russia.

Football Champions of Various Sections

NEW YORK.—(AP)—Here's a summary of major sectional leaders in this season's college football:

Big Ten Conference, Minnesota. Southeastern Conference, Alabama. Southern Conference, North Carolina. Big Six Conference, Nebraska. Southwest Conference, (undecided.) Pacific Coast Conference, California. Rocky Mountain Conference, Colorado U.

Eastern "Ivy League," Dartmouth. East (Independent), Pitt-Fordham. Eastern "Big Three," Harvard. Service, Army.

Major unbeaten and untied teams—Alabama, Santa Clara, Colorado and Lafayette.

Major unbeaten but tied teams—Pittsburgh, Fordham, California, Montana and Villanova, each tied twice; Dartmouth and Holy Cross, tied twice.

Rice Needs to Win One More for Title

Victory Over Mustangs Would Make Owls Loop Champs

DALLAS, Texas.—(AP)—Down the stretch to the last post and a story-conference here next Saturday when a couple of early season flops play the final game of a round-robin schedule that could determine an undisputed champion.

One-half game ahead of the field, Rice will come to town needing nothing shy of a victory over an aroused Southern Methodist club to win their second title in four years.

A tie would wind them up sharing the driver's seat with Texas Christian and a loss would make Texas Christian the titlist and Rice just a runnerup. Southern Methodist, until Saturday a contender, now is just a big barrier in the way of Rice.

Big Ole Corbitt, Rice's sophomore savior, put the Owls right in the middle of the flat scrap with a dazzling running and kicking show that stopped Baylor at Houston, 13-7 while Little Davey O'Brien again came through for Texas Christian with a fourth-period field goal that felled a stubborn Methodist Mustang, 3-0.

Only Texas A. and M. with its turkey day victory over Texas as a fresher, plays another game. The Aggies meet San Francisco U. on the Pacific coast to end the schedule. Arkansas, winner over Tulsa, 28-7, on Thanksgiving Day, and the University of Texas, have called it quits.

If any one puts his box down next to mine, I push his head through his box.—New York footballback, explaining "code of fair action" among his co-workers.

Bags First Buck With Bow

William VanVorst is shown dragging out of the wilds of Newaygo county, Mich., the first buck killed in that state's first regulated deer hunting season for archers. VanVorst, a Lowen, Mich., bank teller, was one of more than 200 bow and arrow hunters who had roamed the woods of two Michigan counties since Nov. 1. He used a 70-pound home-made yew bow and drove a 27-inch steel-head arrow through the 115-pound spikehorn buck's lungs. The deer was running at a rapid pace and was about 15 yards from VanVorst when he shot.

Writer Criticizes Radio Broadcasts

Says the Monroe Doctrine Being Undermined by Broadcasts

By MORGAN M. BEATTY
AP Feature Service Writer

WASHINGTON—The news that Brazil has joined the growing list of Latin American dictatorships has brought home to official Washington generally a fact that has long harassed the state department's inner circle, namely:

Radio waves are constantly undermining the Monroe Doctrine—our time-honored barrier against European political systems.

In case you've forgotten, President Monroe told European nations 114 years ago that we would keep hands off Europe, and expected, in return, that they would keep their colonies and their political systems out of the western hemisphere.

But here is what has been happening:

1. European radio stations—especially German, Italian and Russian—have been broadcasting news and entertainment programs to Latin Americans in their own languages for several years.

2. These broadcasts naturally reflect fascist and communist systems in a highly favorable light and constantly use labels and terms that go with those systems.

3. Some South American newspapers pick up this information daily and re-distribute it in printed form.

All of this means that the Monroe Doctrine is daily suffering erosion from Europe, and yet the Doctrine is not being violated. Any nation may broadcast information and entertainment.

Question of Terms

Meanwhile, South Americans are growing more and more familiar with fascist and communist ideas and labels, such as "the corporate state," "centralized control," "economic expansion for the state," and the like.

One unofficial authority in Washington, who is in a position to analyze first-hand reports from South America, puts it like this:

"The fact is that the South American nations commonly labeled fascist are not fascist in the Italian sense; nor is the Latin American group that bears the communistic in the Russian sense. South American dictatorship now are what they always were—minority groups or strong-arm leaders controlling nations with the aid of armies."

Here's where the rub comes:

United States officials—and many business men, for that matter—fear that the constant use of the political language and labels of Europe ultimately may lead South American nations and the world at large to believe communism and fascism of the European variety actually have taken root right at our own doorstep.

If that should occur, then these ticklish questions would have to be answered:

Ties Still Strong
Would European fascist and communist nations be able to gain an economic perch in South America at the expense of the great democracies? And, more important, would such a movement finally force the United States either to defend the Monroe Doctrine or cease to consider it as a matter of foreign policy?

Only the future can tell, but for the time being it can be said on reliable authority that the economic ties between the United States and South America are holding fast. Brazil, the latest South American nation that has reverted to dictatorship, has taken great pains to assure the United States that it has not gone fascist, contradictory as that may seem.

Likewise, Argentina's President Augustin P. Justo reminded the "fascists" of his country recently that its natural economic ties were with two powerful democracies, Great Britain and the United States.

As for the wide gulf of language and culture that separates the United States from South America, a beginning has been made.

LOTS OF ROOM HERE

PASSENGERS who step into the 1937 Ford V-8 sedan will find plenty of room to reach the rear compartment without crowding, as the result of the adoption of a novel front seat design. The seat cushion is full width but the seat back is divided. When either section is tilted forward it also swings inward due to diagonal hinging. This provides a wide passageway on either side between the seat back and the car wall, through which passenger can step into the rear without crowding. This seat design, believed to be new in the industry, enhances the practicability of the Tudor model.

American conference was the President of the Democratic United States. The conferring nations agreed to swap cultural lore.

The United States bureau of education has already plunged into the job of educating our own citizens in elemental South American history. Its radio program, "Brave New World," is broadcast on a network of 80-odd stations every Monday night.

There's another ace in the hole. The United States has five short-wave radio bands set aside by international agreement for non-commercial broadcasting to South America. The federal radio commission has started hearings to decide whether private broadcasters will use those bands. And at least one congressman is agitating a bill to put the government into the pan-American radio broadcasting field.

American news associations and agencies are sending news dispatches to South American newspapers daily—unhindered, however, by any argument for any political system.

It is possible we'll be listening to South American opera stars one of these days, and South Americans will be going wild over baseball. . . . Time will tell.

Auto Hits Wagon, Child Is Killed

Officers Seek Driver of the Car Found on the Highway

PINE BLUFF, Ark.—Eddie Merrill Jones, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Jones, who live near Redfield, was killed in an accident on Highway 65, near Redfield, about 5 p. m. Saturday, when the wagon in which he was riding was hit by an automobile.

The child's father was hurt. He suffered a wrist injury and a cut on the head. Mrs. Jones and two other children in the wagon escaped without injury.

Deputy Sheriff L. Thomason of Pine Bluff, who investigated the accident, said a large car was found near the scene, bearing Arkansas license 5099 and containing a driver's license

Ozan men and women, who are now in their 40's and 50's, spent as children playing in father's old office, listening to the roar and crackling of the fire in the large office fireplace, anticipating and enjoying the stories and lessons taught them by father while he was not too busy to chat with the youngsters.

With the changes that have been made in the farmstead and in farming for the past two or three decades, most of these farm office buildings have been torn down, but their influence on the youngsters who had the privileges of sitting by their firesides will linger on and on.

Doctor's Cabin at Ozan Torn Down

Old Office of Dr. J. D. Barrow of Years Ago Is Dismantled

By Winnie Sparks

The old cabin which served as Dr. J. D. Barrow's office building at Ozan for many years has been torn down by John Barrow, now owner of the Barrow property, and the materials from the old building are being used by Mr. Barrow to build a tenant's house. The Barrow office was located by the J. D. Barrow residence.

Long years ago in the Ozan community all of the prosperous, active landlords had office buildings constructed near the family homes. In these offices all of the business of the farms was carried on. Often the chief colored servant had his rooming quarters in the mass's office so that he could guard it and its contents.

Miss Thelma Webb, daughter of W. H. Webb of Ozan, has had diphtheria for the past two weeks. Miss Webb, who is in nurse's training in the Baptist State Hospital in Little Rock, is reported to be somewhat better.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hooper and children of Horatio, and Mr. and Mrs. John Robins were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Barrow Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cannon and daughter, Henrietta, of Ardmore, Okla., and John L. Stinson of Ashdown, visited Mr. and Mrs. E. Hasleman Friday.

A 44-Hour Week for Pennsylvania

Only Farm and Domestic Help Exempt From State Law

HARRISBURG, Pa.—(AP)—Pennsylvania's millions of workers in offices, stores and industries go on a 44-hour week next Wednesday. Thousands of coal miners and other union members have contracts for a shorter week—but two laws passed by the 1937 legislature fix the maximum work week after December 1 at 44 hours, for those without such agreements.

Eight hundred thousand women workers got their 44-hour week September 1, through the first of the two laws. The second, covering employees general, goes into force December 1.

The child, Eddie Merrill Jones, was taken to the office of Dr. Robert C. Bogard at Hensley, north of Redfield, but died before reaching Hensley, Dr. Bogard said.

He said he was told the car struck the rear of the wagon. The wagon and car both were headed north.

The Jones family lives on a farm across the Arkansas river from Redfield.

D. M. Burford of Pine Bluff is a former resident of Hope. He was connected with the cotton business here several years before moving to Pine Bluff.

W. H. Norwood, Former Hempstead Man, Honored

NASHVILLE, Ark.—The home of W. H. Norwood here was the scene of a happy event Thanksgiving Day when children and their families gathered at the home of their 84-year-old father with baskets of food, providing a feast of which no less than 23 persons partook.

The reunion was a surprise to Mr. Norwood, merchant here, and he in turn surprised his children by presenting each of them with $100.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Norwood of Little Rock; Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Norwood and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Norwood and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. Mark Jackson's family, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Bull and Mrs. Kate Eley and children, all of Nashville, also Mrs. Ola Atkins and Mrs. Clarence Lewis. Guy A. Norwood of Little Rock was the only child absent.

W. H. Norwood has made a marked success in various undertakings as planter, merchant, postmaster, banker, insurance man, traveling salesman, stockman, gin and mill operator. He has operated stores in Doyle, DeQueen, Mineral Springs and Nashville. He now has stores in Nashville and Mineral

That law fixes a five and one-half day week, with variations for employers on whom it would work a hardship, for every worker in the state except farm help, domestic servants, $25-a-week executives and professional people. It will apply to about 3,000,000 workers.

More than 75,000 new jobs will be created by the law, said Ralph M. Boshope, secretary of labor and industry.

Spring. Mr. Norwood drives his own car and is as active as the average man of 60. His home here is one of the most beautiful in the city and recently was remodeled, redecorated and newly furnished. Mr. Norwood has given freely to schools, churches and charitable organizations.
